

Gabe Doyle poem – Inauguration of Governor Jim Doyle

January 6, 2003

It's a new day,
Wisconsin has elected a new leader/
A new sun,
Rising, raising the meter//
It's a new day,
Change campaigning for a voice/
Democracy and choice,
Opportunity, progress,
Future visions,
Leading this new day/
A new sway to talk of the Politics we used to take//
A new light,
A switch in Focus,
The new days in sight,
A movement worth notice//
The new day,
Changing the wheels in motion,
Strength of the people's emotions,
Keep this new day floatin/
So today I embrace the voice of the people
Thank you for your support
Your hard work is unbelievable
And to the man
Elected for his principles being iron clad
Wisconsin thanks you for the years
As A/G
But for me and Gus
Thanks for being DAD.
