ASSEMBLY DEMOCRATIC LEADER JIM KREUSER ANNOUNCES JOINT FINANCE COMMITTEE APPOINTMENT

Kreuser selects Rep. Mark Pocan of Madison to sit on state budget-writing committee

MADISON – Assembly Democratic Leader Jim Kreuser announced the appointment today of Representative Mark Pocan of Madison to the Joint Committee on Finance. Representative Pocan will be joining Representative Pedro Colon of Milwaukee who was also recently appointed to represent Assembly Democrats.

“Mark Pocan is a small business owner, a former county board supervisor, and a proven leader. The level of commitment he has shown over the last six years to his district, to the legislature, and to the state, is exemplary,” said Rep. Kreuser.

During the last legislative session, Representative Pocan’s committee service included Assembly Committees on Audit, Campaigns and Elections, Colleges and Universities, Criminal Justice and Corrections, and the Joint Committee on Audit. In addition, he authored legislation to prevent the legislature from passing a budget that would increase the state’s structural deficit, as well as a bill to compel the state to require contractual services purchased to be performed within the United States.
